

Teak Weathered Siding Specifications

Product Description

Our naturally distressed Teak Siding & Paneling is milled with the original surface face is pristine and left intact, for maximum character. Decades of tropical weathering and human use have seasoned this wood to a gorgeous one-of-a-kind patina and unique look.

Source

Vintage buildings slated for demolition in Indonesia

Species

Tectona grandis.

Colors

Weathered silver-grey, rich browns and espresso that turns to a rich tobacco brown when oiled. Also black oxide staining from nails, bolts and other fasteners.

Net Dimensions

Available in 1/4" – 9/ 16" thick x 3-6" width x 3-8' Length

Millwork

Shiplap profile with 1/4" reveal .Original weathered surface face left intact. Custom millwork available.

Character

Occasional prefilled nail and dowel holes, black oxide stains, prefilled surface seasoning checks and occasional sound tight knots.

Finish

Comes unfinished, unless otherwise specified.

Hardness

Janka rating of 1155.

Moisture Content

Air dried to eight-to-fifteen percent moisture content.

Grading

100% FSC certified recycled

Packaging

Banded.

Certification

Certified recycled by the Forest Stewardship Council (FSC). Cert Number FSCC083430

LEED

MR 4.1 & 4.2 (Materials Reuse).